

August 15, 1940.

Commander Thomas Anderson,
West Side Memorial Bldg.,
Adriatic Ave.,
Atlantic City, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I am sure you have received the passes to accompany the placards by this time. I notified the printer to send them to you upon receipt of your letter.

I am also having some publicity sent directly to you and directly to the Atlantic City newspapers. I am sure it would help if you would drop a line to the sport editors of the papers and ask them to use the publicity sent to them. You could also do a much better job to get the co-operation from your local radio station than we would. I will have some data sent to you which you can get to them. I have arranged to use the portable lights.

About the accommodations for the Ball Club, Atty. Burrell and I have discussed it and felt we might get a better rate from private individuals. I am afraid the hotel rate for that time of year will be prohibited. There will be about 35 or 40 men to be accommodated. This is for one night only Friday, August 23rd.

If the games are a success, we will return the next week and play another team, if you would like us to. Let me know if there is any further co-operation I can give you.

Very truly yours,

MM:CCJ